EDUCATION & FAMILIES SERIES

Presented by QUEST TAMWORTH

A place where time stood still,
is about to change, forever

Hotel Sorrento by Australian playwright Hannie Rayson is a relatable comedy/drama with a familial story at its core. This award winning play, which inspired the film of the same name, tells the story of three sisters who grew up together in the seaside town Sorrento.

When the three sisters are reunited after 10 years apart they again feel the constraints of family life. A semi autobiographical book written by middle sister and expat Meg triggers the familial tensions and dramas that eventuate.

The play is about family in a literal and metaphorical sense and the importance of blood ties and collective memory, true or false.
